Network 1 Financial Securities, Inc. Launches Informational Website

PublicChineseCompanies.com to provide information on China's emerging publicly traded companies

RED BANK, N.J., December 17, 2018 – Network 1 Financial Securities, Inc. today announced the launch of PublicChineseCompanies.com, a new website dedicated to providing investors with information on the emerging Chinese economy, and the companies and new markets developing within the country.

“2018 has been a strong year for Chinese IPOs in the U.S., with the number nearly doubling from what we saw in 2017” said Damon Testaverde, Chairman of Network 1 Financial Securities, Inc. “This presents a real opportunity for investors, which is why we launched our new informational website. It is a vehicle to keep investors informed about the opportunities within China’s emerging markets, and we are confident that it will provide them with the information they need to make informed investment decisions.”
